ABOUT KEMEROVO OBLAST CITY

Kemerovo, city and administrative centre of Kemerovo Oblast (region), south-central Russia, Kemerovo lies along the Tom River near the foothills of the Kuznetsk Alatau Mountains. The small village of Kemerovo was founded in the 1830s and merged with the village of Shcheglovo in 1918 to form the city of Shcheglovsk. The city began to grow rapidly with the development of the Kuznetsk Coal Basin, and in 1932 it reverted to the name Kemerovo.
