PTE - Key Facts

The Pearson Test of English - Academic is an English language test designed to assess the readiness of non-native English speakers to participate in a university-level English language instruction program. Pearson created PTE Academic in response to demand from institutions, government and other organizations for a more accurate way of testing non-native English language students who enter the English-speaking academia world. PTE is accepted for student and immigration applications across the world.

What is PTE Academic?

PTE Academic is the first entirely computer-based English language test for international study and immigration that is accepted across the world. Powered by AI (Artificial Intelligence) technology, PTE Academic provides a fast and convenient testing solution without human bias.

The test assesses the four skills of Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing. It lasts approximately 2 hours and provides a score based on the GSE (Global Scale of English). PTE Academic scores are accepted by thousands of institutions and approved for UK, Australian and New Zealand student visa and immigration categories.

Who can take the test?

- Any study abroad aspirant, with minimum age of 16 years can take the PTE test.
- Candidates below the age of 18 years are supposed to take parent's/guardian's consent form signed.

MORE ABOUT THE TEST

To complete a PTE Academic test, you will need to attend a secure Pearson test center. You will use a computer and a headset to listen to read and respond to questions.

During the two-hour test session, there are three main parts to the test: Speaking and Writing (together), Listening and Reading. There is also an optional 10-minute break between the reading and listening parts. During the test, you will find twenty different question formats, ranging from multiple choice through to essay writing and interpreting information.

PTE Academic assesses real-life, academic English, so you will hear excerpts from lectures and view graphs and charts. You will hear a range of accents in the test, from British and American to non-native speakers, so you will be exposed to the type of accents you will encounter in everyday life.

Why PTE for Australia and New Zealand?

PTE Academic English test is accepted by Australia's Department of Home Affairs (DHA) and Immigration New Zealand for all student and immigration visa applications.
